Capt. Price again had his fighting suit on, and had to be once more restrained in an effort to make a speech. That there is a strong feeling on the part of the Captain against Mr. Osgood, the leader of the complainants, became evi-dent in the beginning. When the Judge assembled the party about him, he ask-ed for Mr. Osgood, on whose account the Conference had been adjourned last Wednesday.

the Conference had been adjourned last Wednesday.

The Thirty-ninth street leader arose and acknowledge himself the prime mover in the effort of the respectable property-owners and residents of Thirty-ninth street to purify the street. Mr. Osgood is a prosperous-looking man, and his manner is quiet and contained. He began by stating that he had no axe to grind, no complaint to make against any police officer and no ulterior motive whatsoever in starting this campaign against disreputable dwellers in his block.

This result was brought about by Commissioners Purcell, Robertson and Fee-ncy, of the State Board of Arbitration and Mediation.

At the joint conference between the contractors and the strikers, which was held in the presence of the Board of Arbitration, at the Broadway Central bridge Hotel this morning, the contractors, 10,175 Witkowski, proposed to amend that clause of the agreement which called for discrimination against Knights of Labor, to read as follows:

"All work in the shops of the contractors shall be paid by the week."

This excludes piece-work, which, it is said, is the only class of work done by the tailors of the K. of L.

If it does, the strike will be ended, and the strikers may congratulate them, selves upon having won one of the most remarkable labor fights ever witnessed in this city.
